Discovering and displaying Christ in here and out there

Immanuel Presbyterian Church (USA) Tucson, AZ Volume 31 Issue 10

BREAKING IPC NEWS UPDATE:

We have our new
Director of Christian Formation!

Details coming soon...

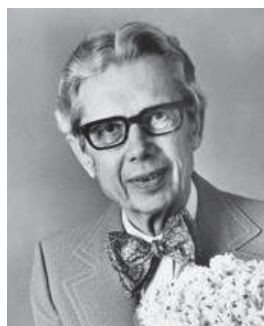

It all got started when the Wright brothers were given a flying toy with a rubber band by their father when they were children. Interesting side note, Frank Lloyd Wright's father (a different Wright) invented Lincoln Logs. We need play to work well.

Orville Wright (no relation to the brilliant popcornist Orville Redenbacher pictured here) was daring and Wilbur Wright was visionary—but they both had intellectual depth, mechanical skills, and a disciplined work ethic. The brothers were of the same blood, but different personalities. They loved their work so much, they weren't dependent upon accolades or attention to keep going.

The brothers began their collaboration as "The Wright Brothers" when Wilbur was twenty-two and Orville was eighteen. They first began making printing machines, then they switched to a bike repair shop, and then things took off when they decided, "hey, let's try making flying machines!" Their first flying machine was simple—a kite!

Their flying machines really began to take flight when they read about a failure—a German glider pilot's flight that took a literal nose-dive. Wilbur also studied birds and asked for some help on aeronautics from the Smithsonian Institute. To get it right the Wright brothers needed to stay focused on their goal and mission. They both wore suits to work (they were from NC not AZ), never swore, and honored the Sabbath. Wilbur described their collaboration: "My brother Orville and I lived together, worked together, and in fact thought together." They had to stay encouraged and persistent through failure after failure.

OCTOBER 2019

They needed to keep their minds fresh and open to think outside the box. They invented backwards. Instead of creating everything first, they just tried to get airborne. Once they were airborne they observed in the air what they needed to invent to stay airborne even longer!

They were realists and so they never flew together at the same time. There was freedom to disagree—they were great at arguing, but they didn't fight (there's a difference). The famous siblings could think freely, ask questions, give feedback and even pushback, without it becoming personal. As their fame grew, whenever flying achievements were referred to, each never spoke in the first person, "I did this," rather they always said, "We did this..."

The Wright brothers can teach us a thing or two about not only flying, but faithing together in community. We're brothers and sisters in Christ, but we're not the same. Our differences can strengthen us, rather than divide us. Our mission unites us. We can disagree and remain connected. We're in God's forever family together. Playing together is not only fun, it teaches us about good works and working together "good." We serve Christ because we want to, we have an inner calling that inspires and fuels us to grow in faith, serve others, and make a difference. The Spirit of God infuses us with creativity and openness. We're free to receive feedback, without being offended. We're in a relationship of give and take, mutuality, and collaboration—we turn our "me" upside down and remember the "we" too. The needs and interests of others are considered in addition to our own. We persevere in the midst of failures and setbacks. We learn from failure, rather than fear it. We don't have to be perfect—we can try new things on the fly and see if they fly or not. If they don't—we take notes for next time and celebrate a new lesson learned and try something different next time. The Apostle Paul huddles us together for a good forever family talk:

May the God of steadfastness and encouragement grant you to live in harmony with one another, in accordance with Jesus Christ, so that together you may with one voice glorify the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ. (Rom. 15:5-6)

That's why we're here Immanuel.

Grace and Peace,
John

Commemorative Bookmarks

If you were unable to be at one of the September 29th worship services, we encourage you to pick up one of the bookmarks created to commemorate the completion of the "Wayfare Through the Word" sermon series. This series, focusing on Genesis through the Revelation to John, began on January 14, 2018 and ended on September 29, 2019. The bookmark was designed by Mallory Johnson Swartz (Debby Johnson's daughter) and was prepared by the Worship Team. In addition, "activity sheets" with fun exercises that build on information learned from these sermons are included in this newsletter. Both the activity sheets and the bookmarks will be on the credenza at the church entrance for several weeks for you to take.

NEW LIFE CHALLENGES

News in the Missions World

A Lending Hand

Mission co-worker César Carhuachín, as reported by Presbyterian World Mission, lives in Barranquilla, Colombia, more than 100 miles from the Venezuelan border, but the chaos and desperation that pervade this country confront him every day. In Colombia, just beyond the Reformed University campus where Cesar teaches ministerial students, he sees Venezuelans trying to survive by peddling candy and bottle water on the street.

More than three million Venezuelans have left their country, where political repression has thrust tremendous economic hardship and pervasive shortages of food and medicine on the people. Their plight tugs at César's heart and engages his life as a Christian disciple, a mission co-worker, a minister and a professor. Our gifts to Presbyterian World Mission enable us to send people like César to places where they work with global partners to transform lives for the sake of the gospel. César has invested his life in crossing boundaries to share the good news of God's love in Jesus Christ.

César says he has been inspired by Mark 10:45: The Son of Man came not to be served but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many. "Jesus tells us in this passage that he was and he is in the world to serve people and to give his life in sacrificial service," César says. For César, that Scripture is a call to "give my time, gifts, creativity, and whatever I can to enrich, to affirm, and to empower the life and ministry of others."

CASA MARIA MINISTRY

Immanuel is one of many organizations in Tucson who regularly help to feed the hungry through donations of sack lunches to the Casa Maria Free Kitchen. Located in the Santa Rita neighborhood of South Tucson, Casa Maria feeds nearly 1,000 people every day—local residents and homeless alike. Immanuel's commitment is for 500 lunches every 4 weeks. Immanuel members prepare 350 lunches at home, and our Deacons prepare 150 at church.

Want to help make sandwiches? Each lunch should contain two meat and cheese sandwiches (please use only butter/margarine—no mayo, mustard, lettuce or tomato), a piece of fruit (such as a banana, peach, pear, or orange), and a dessert (2 cookies, 1 brownie, etc.). Please bring your sack lunches to the church between 8:00am and 9:00am. The Casa Maria team leaves promptly at 9:00am.

We're all searching. Sometimes the search is easy: simply type a question and the answer pops up. But sometimes our questions are complicated, and the answers are difficult to see and harder to articulate. How do we discover and examine the truths that give meaning and purpose to life? Adam Hamilton believes that some powerful answers are contained in the Apostles' Creed, an early statement of foundational Christian beliefs.

In this book, Hamilton considers important questions of life, reality, and truth. He explores not only what Christians believe, but also why they believe it and why it matters.

Senior Quilts

The crafters group will be making quilts for high school seniors graduating this coming spring. The quilts are for those students who are active in church youth group and or Sunday services.

We will need the name of the student no later than January 15th to allow ample time for quilt completion. There will be a form available in the church office for the student to fill out that will specify their preferences such as favorite colors, hobbies and special interests.

The quilts will be given to the students on Mother's Day, May 10th after the 11:00am service. All quilts will be displayed for both services so the entire congregation will be able to see them. Students may take their quilt home after pictures are taken with the quilter and the student. All quilts will be no larger than a twin size bed.

Bottle Cap Ministry

Collecting bottle caps has been a long tradition here at Immanuel. Our amazing Lucy Greenleaf has dedicated an incredible amount of her time and energy leading this ministry. Thank you Lucy!

The money received from recycling bottle caps goes to the State Oncology Center in Hermisillo to benefit children undergoing medical treatments and their families. These families cannot afford the cost of medical care. The support covers hospital fees, food, medicines for cancer, lab tests, and other items required during treatment.

Several times each month Lucy sorts and organizes the donated bottle caps. She drives the collection down to Dr. Pazos at the office of Compañeros en Misión in Nogales. Dr. Pazos then takes the collection to Hermisillo for recycling. The money is then given to the State Oncology Center.

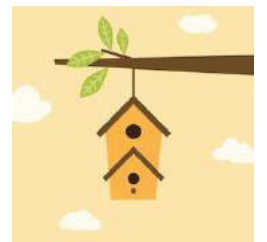

Here are some guidelines for collecting caps that makes it easier for us to prepare the collection to be delivered to Compañeros en Misión:

- ⇒ All prescription/pill bottle caps are accepted as well as water and soda bottle caps.
- ⇒ No metal of any kind.
- ⇒ For larger caps/lids, please check to make sure it has the triangle recycling symbol
- ⇒ Lids must be clean and free of any food residue.
- ⇒ No pumps or plungers (i.e. hand pump soap bottles).
- ⇒ No food containers or large plastic tubs.
- ⇒ Please bag in strong trash bags with no tears or holes.
- ⇒ If in doubt, please do not donate. If a bag shows up with a piece of metal or other non-recyclable item—they will discard the entire bag at the recycling center.

Thank You Immanuel!

Dear Immanuel Friends:

I have been housing a family of four from Russia (parents and two children, ages 13 years and 20 months) while they work their way through the asylum process. They are delightful people and a joy to have in my home. Over the holidays (approximately December 21-January 4), my family from Oklahoma will be here so I need to find temporary housing for my guests. They would need two bedrooms, a bathroom, and access to the kitchen to prepare their own meals. Is there anyone who would be able to provide this space for them, or perhaps let them house-sit for you while you are out of town? My only other option would be to put them up in a Residence Inn or Extended Stay unit here in Tucson, which would be very expensive to me to take on alone. Any help you can suggest or offer will be gratefully considered. Please call or email me if you have any questions. Thank you!

World Food Week of Action — October 13-20

An Invitation

Famine and extreme hunger are a reality today for many of our brothers and sisters. In Matthew 25, Jesus challenges us to respond as if he himself were hungry. The Presbyterian Hunger Program has partners working in places where people are suffering, and the need is urgent. We want to do more, and we are asking for your help.

There is enough food in the world for everyone. But because of poor access and distribution, extreme weather, and political instability, many don't have enough to survive. Extreme famine has been declared in Yemen, Nigeria, South Sudan, and Somalia. An official declaration of famine means that at least 20% of households face an extreme lack of food—that's one person in five. Every day, 16,000 children die from hunger-related causes and preventable disease (statistics from FoodAid International, <https://food-aid.org/> and the Presbyterian Hunger Program).

Right here in Tucson, children go to bed hungry at night. Generally speaking, poverty is the culprit in our community. Although many schools provide free breakfasts and lunches, children still don't have enough food over the weekend. This is why we at Immanuel support Haven Totes—to provide weekend food totes for kids and a food bank for their families to get the foods they so desperately need. This is why we collect food for the Eastside Food Bank. And this is why we invite you to participate October 13-20 in the revival of the Cents-Ability Offering.

On Sunday, October 13, we invite each family to take home a Cents-Ability Can and place it on your dining room or kitchen table. Each time you eat a meal (or have a snack, or go out for ice cream, or stop at Starbucks...), you are asked to make a contribution toward alleviating hunger—maybe just a few cents, perhaps a nickel or dime a meal, maybe a quarter. If you eat at a restaurant, consider “tithing” that meal when you get home (that is, make a 10% contribution to Cents-Ability). Set your own goals. We invite you to do whatever you can to help put food on someone else's table by putting a few cents in the can at every meal.

Then bring the can to worship on Sunday, October 20. We will have a special worship service that will focus on poverty, hunger, and World Food Week. The Sanctuary Choir is preparing four special musical selections and Holly Schurr will be there to play violin and timpani. Pastor John's third sermon on the Lord's Prayer (“Thy kingdom come”) will add to our understanding of what we can be doing to bring about God's kingdom on earth. 50% of our Cents-Ability collection will be sent to the Presbyterian Hunger Program to help alleviate famine worldwide. The other 50% will be used locally—our Missions Team will decide where it best can be applied.

Cents-Ability originated in 1976 as “Two-Cents-A-Meal,” a project begun by Presbyterian Women to involve individuals and families in a corporate response to world hunger. Cents-Ability is a small first step in the battle against hunger and poverty. This simple act is an expression of thanks for what we have received. It is also a commitment to share with others in response to Jesus' command to give them something to eat. It may not seem like much, but small acts of faithfulness can add up: One hundred persons in a congregation might collect $105 in a week at five cents a meal. At 25 cents a meal, $525 could be collected.

We've said it many times: Individually we can do a lot. Together we can do more. Thank you, Immanuel, for always choosing to do more.

Immanuel Sanctuary Choir Honor Roll—Part Two

In August's Dove, we published the names of many faithful singers who have graced our choir loft in the past—people who had sung in our choir at one time, but were no longer singing with us because they moved away, or changed churches, or are no longer living. Inevitably, in our effort to reconstruct the past, we overlooked a few people. We are grateful that their families or friends spoke up to let us know. Sometimes our memories aren't as good as we'd like, especially when we're trying to reconstruct groups that existed thirty or forty years ago. We rejoice that these folks were in our choir—

Edith Albertsen (d. 3/7/2002)

Jimmie Albertsen, soprano (d. 11/3/1998)

Gail Elliott, alto

Mary Elliott, soprano

Mo Ellis, bass

Else Emmons, soprano

Milton Emmons, tenor

Jim Fordemwalt, Tenor

Jay Kiser, tenor

Ada McDonnell, soprano

Kathy Roe Shipley, alto

Andrew Snodgrass, baritone

Meryl Waterman, soprano (Lois Buss's mother)

And a correction: Marian Kellermeyer lives at Villa Hermosa here in Tucson. We had inadvertently listed her as living in Sahuarita in our last list.

Directors and Organists. And where would we be without our cast of illustrious leaders? Here, as best as we could reconstruct, is a list of our choir directors and organists/pianists since the beginning of time.

Where Are They Now?

Ramsy Unruh returned to Canada where he led worship in churches in British Columbia, Saskatchewan, and Manitoba. Ramsy married Shannon in 1992, and they had three children. He eventually became the senior pastor at Community Fellowship Church in Newton, Manitoba, a member church in the Mennonite Central Committee Canada. In 2010, Ramsy was diagnosed with a brain tumor, and he died September 29, 2011, two weeks before his 50th birthday. <https://www.mckenzieportagefuneralchapel.com/notices/Ramsy-Unruh>

Laura Rushing-Raynes heads the Voice Area in the Department of Music at Boise State University in Boise, Idaho. She teaches graduate and undergraduate voice, courses in vocal pedagogy, and co-directs the Opera and Music Theatre programs.

MaryAnn Brilleslyper teaches choral music and theater at Discovery Canyon Campus, an International Baccalaureate school in Colorado Springs, and serves as the choir director at the Church at Woodmoor in Monument, Colorado.

Immanuel Receives Special Recognition

Congratulations, Immanuel! At the quarterly Presbytery meeting in August, recognition was given to churches that had participated in all four churchwide special offerings in the past year—One Great Hour of Sharing, Pentecost, Peace and Global Witness, and Christmas Joy. Each church received a certificate of recognition for being a “Four for Four” church. Of the 28 churches in Presbytery de Cristo, six received this recognition: Covenant (Bisbee), Immanuel, Mountain Shadows, St. John on the Desert, St. Marks, and Trinity.

But wait—there’s more. When we saw the certificate, we were amazed to learn that Immanuel has been a “Four for Four” Congregation for 22 years! We have always said that this is a very caring, hospitable, committed, and dedicated congregation, and your recent actions and offerings have confirmed it. Twenty-two years is a long time to maintain a congregational commitment to helping others—but isn’t that what being a church is about?

The Presbyterian Church (USA) says “Giving is a response to God’s call and is a response that the Spirit has manifested in believers since the Acts church of early Christianity. Giving for the sake of those in need is an essential component of congregational vitality and Christian identity.”

The four special offerings really are special. They reach people whom we ordinarily cannot reach. We will always respond to the immediate needs of our community—as we have through Haven Totes as well as the ministries for migrants waiting at the border—but the quarterly special offerings give us a way to make a difference locally, nationally, and globally that we might not be able to make if we didn’t have the connection to the Presbyterian Church (USA).

The next Special Offering in the rotation is Peace and Global Witness, which will be collected on October 6, World Communion Sunday. This offering is applied to peacemaking efforts and to address systems of injustice around the world. Fifty percent is used by the Presbyterian Mission Agency to advocate for peace and justice in cultures of violence, including our own culture. Twenty-five percent is used by mid councils (presbyteries) for ministries of peace and reconciliation. And twenty-five percent may be used by congregations for local efforts in witness and peacemaking. Last October, Immanuel donated its portion ($775) to Frontera de Cristo to expand their ministries on the streets of Agua Prieta. This year, our Missions Team has elected to support The Middle Eastern Presbyterian Fellowship with our 25% portion.

Through our special offerings, we empower people around the globe to live happier, healthier, safer, and more rewarding lives because we share the good news of the Gospel of Jesus Christ who said, “I came that they may have life, and have it abundantly” (John 10:10). Individually we can do a lot. Together we can do more. Congratulations, people of Immanuel—you have consistently done more.

To read more about the four special offerings, see page 7 of the March 2019 Dove at <http://www.immanuelpc.org/wp-content/uploads/2019/04/2019-Mar-DOVE-Newsletter.pdf>
